

Czech Society for Quality (CSQ) is celebrating the EOQ Quality Week 2017 on November 14. The International Conference takes place in Prague.

This year's conference "Quality Transforms" will be focused on audit innovations, quality in public administration and volunteering for excellence. The audience will hear the perspective of governmental and state institutions, companies, accreditation body, certification bodies and consultants.

Our subsidiaries in regions organize one day November Conferences locally.

The Conference includes also the event of handing over the National Quality Award at the Prague Castle with the participation of President, Prime Minister and Ministers.

More information about all events in November can be found at <http://www.eqw.csj-podpora.cz/>, the program is on the webpage <http://www.eqw.csj-podpora.cz/mezinarodni-konference/>.