EOQ Announces the Appointment of a New Executive Board Member

The EOQ Executive Board is vested with the full and entire powers to run the affairs of the association and the professionalism and commitment of its members is a key factor in EOQ's success

At its meeting of June 3rd, 2022, the EOQ Executive Board approved the nomination of Juha Ylä-Autio as Vice President of the EOQ Executive Board. His appointment will formally be confirmed by the EOQ General Assembly at its meeting of June 24th, 2022.

Mr. Juha Ylä-Autio is the official representative of the Finnish Quality Association (FQA) in EOQ. He is a change leader, with long experience in business management and proven record of leadership.

Juha Ylä-Autio was appointed as a CEO of the Finnish Quality Association and its limited company, in March 2020. In business terms, he has renewed the limited company's offerings and introduced new products to the market.

In his position, he handles international relations with EOQ and other European organizations and works in close contact with several international organisations. Because of his creative abilities, in terms of renewals and services offerings, Juha Ylä-Autio is considered to be a valuable member of the EOQ Executive Board.

The European Organization for Quality (EOQ) is an autonomous, non-profit making association under Belgian law and it associates more than 70,000 members and 500,000 companies within its member and partner organizations in Europe and worldwide. EOQ is the European interdisciplinary organization striving for effective improvement in the sphere of quality management as the coordinating body and catalyst of its Member Organizations aiming to improve European society through the promotion of Quality in its broadest sense.
