

EOQ Press Release

EOQ Announces the Appointment of a New Executive Board Member

The EOQ Executive Board is vested with the full and entire powers to run the affairs of the association and the professionalism and commitment of its members is a key factor in EOQ's success

At its meeting of April 22nd, 2022, the EOQ Executive Board approved the nomination of Romana Hofmanova as Vice President of the EOQ Executive Board. Her appointment will formally be confirmed by the EOQ General Assembly at its meeting of June 24th, 2022.

Mrs. Romana Hofmanova is since many years the official representative of the Czech Society for Quality (CSQ) in EOQ. She is a long-time employee of CSQ as its Personnel Certification director and for the last 10 years she has been a member of CSQ's elected bodies, representing her organization in several European and international organizations. She is a skilled employee and through her work experience in several national, European and international projects and by her proven commitment to EOQ's activities, Romana Hofmanova is considered to be a valuable member of the EOQ Executive Board. She declared her readiness to share her time, knowledge, skills and communication abilities to the benefit of EOQ's further development and success.

The European Organization for Quality (EOQ) is an autonomous, non-profit making association under Belgian law and it associates more than 70,000 members and 500,000 companies within its member and partner organizations in Europe and worldwide. EOQ is the European interdisciplinary organization striving for effective improvement in the sphere of quality management as the coordinating body and catalyst of its Member Organizations aiming to improve European society through the promotion of Quality in its broadest sense.

April 2022

If you'd like more information about this topic, e-mail Ulf Gustavsson – EOQ Secretary General at ulf.gustavsson@eoq.org