EOQ Announces the Appointment of New Executive Board Members

The EOQ Executive Board is vested with the full and entire powers to run the affairs of the association and the professionalism and commitment of its members is a key factor in EOQ's success

At its meeting of June 24th, 2022, the EOQ General Assembly approved three new Vice Presidents of the EOQ Executive Board: Mrs. Romana Hofmanova, Mr. Juha Ylä-Autio and Mr. Vincent Desmond.

Mrs. Romana Hofmanova is since many years the official representative of the Czech Society for Quality (CSQ)/Czech Republic in EOQ. She is a long-time employee of CSQ as its Personnel Certification director and for the last 10 years she has been a member of CSQ's elected bodies.

Mr. Juha Ylä-Autio is the official representative of the Finnish Quality Association (FQA)/Finland in EOQ. He is a change leader, with long experience in business management and proven record of leadership. He was appointed as a CEO of the Finnish Quality Association and its limited company, in March 2020.

Mr. Vincent Desmond is the official representative of the Chartered Quality Institute (CQI)/United Kingdom in EOQ and the CEO of this organization since December 2015. With his change and quality management skills, he is ready to contribute to EOQ's further development.

The European Organization for Quality (EOQ) is an autonomous, non-profit making association under Belgian law and it associates more than 70,000 members and 500,000 companies within its member and partner organizations in Europe and worldwide. EOQ is the European interdisciplinary organization striving for effective improvement in the sphere of quality management as the coordinating body and catalyst of its Member Organizations aiming to improve European society through the promotion of Quality in its broadest sense.
